Domiciliary and management services

Representing your international interests

Every company around the world is obliged to maintain a registered office where official documents can be served. In addition, there is a requirement for one or more directors to assume responsibility for the company management. TMF can manage this burden for you. We provide a complete range of domiciliary and management services, making sure that all local requirements, rules and regulations are complied with.

With more than 100 offices in over 75 jurisdictions TMF's domiciliary and management services give you complete international coverage.

■ Your registered office address and more

TMF's global premises are available as a registered address for clients. Our professional staff provide a wide range of services, such as ensuring proper registration with the local authorities, diligently processing all communications delivered to the registered address and maintaining accurate accounts and statutory records available for inspection.

Your cross-border operations – compliance assured

With a genuinely global network, TMF Group offers a comprehensive range of accounting, corporate secretarial and HR & payroll services, helping clients globalize their operations seamlessly.

Our expert staff have the key local knowledge and speak the language, providing our clients with a single point of contact and enabling them to stay focused on their core business.
