

TMF Group UAE: Corporate Governance Services

Whether your business is small, family-owned or a large multinational, you could benefit from better corporate governance.

Improved corporate governance can help you to build a sustainable business; through diversification, managing conflict and increasing business value and share price. It could also increase accountability in your company, in turn allowing you to implement more transparent business practices, define roles and separate ownership and control.

TMF Group in the UAE can help you to:

- build a comprehensive corporate governance framework, tailor-made for your business
- draft your corporate governance report - regulator-based and in line with best practice
- develop your Board and internal policies as well as designing necessary company codes including conduct, ethics and conflict
- assist with implementing governance across all levels of your business as well as a disclosure practice policy
- ensuring better transparency and standardised accounting practices
- handle all aspects of Board support; including Board advisory, Board policies, charters, Board training, Board or Director inductions and the Board evaluation processes
- corporate Secretarial services including Board pack development, Board agenda, minutes and resolution preparation and conducting Board meetings as well as General and Extraordinary General Meetings
- director and shareholder liaison, undertaking all correspondence and communication on behalf of your company
- for family-owned businesses we can support the development of a Family Council and help with succession planning and conflict resolution.
